

Wednesday, April 27, 2005

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Vandegriff & Associates, (317) 575-8835

INDIANAPOLIS TRANSITIONAL JOBS PROJECT TEAM MEMBERS NAMED

The Transitional Jobs Project Team Members for Indianapolis have been named following the award by a coalition led by the National League of Cities and its Institute for Youth Education and Families (YEF Institute). The members are:

Mayor Bart Peterson, City of Indianapolis; Andy Fraizer, City of Indianapolis; Gregg Keesling, Workforce, Inc.; Lena Hackett, Community Solutions, Inc.; Dan Shepley, Coalition for Homelessness Intervention and Prevention; Jerry McCory, City of Indianapolis; Rhonda Shipley, Choices, Inc.; Gary Levey, Enterprise Results, Inc.; Barato Britt, Black Alliance for Educational Opportunities; James Taylor, John H. Boner Community Center; Frank Cordozor, Worldwide Filters; and Anthony Hudson, Allen County Community Corrections, Fort Wayne.

Additional team members may be added throughout the project.

As one of seven entities selected for the Transitional Jobs Project, Workforce, Inc. and the Transitional Jobs team will receive 18 months of technical assistance including access to national experts and opportunities to work with those leaders on common challenges.

Workforce Inc. is a non-profit venture designed to help central Indiana companies with their workforce needs through targeted growth and retention strategies in specific industry clusters. For more information, visit www.work-force-inc.com.